

Are you sure you're the real Santa?

Toby, Lisa Tong's pomeranian, has a nervous moment with Santa before getting comfortable for a pet portrait at A Touch Of Love Day Spaw For Pets on Dec. 5. The portrait sessions, as well as a number of other activities including pet psychics and a silent auction, ran for two days, raising money for the Smiling Blue Skies canine cancer fund, and the Springer Rescue of Eastern and Central Canada.

Spa owners Shane Carr and Carl Milson said they hope to bring attention to some of the lesser known, but important pet charities.

INSIDE

Ready to carry the torch

